BLACK MOUNTAIN DRUGANAUT 12"

DRUGANAUT b/w BUFFALO SWAN

Time to rejoice space travellers, music lovers, drug takers and all freak creatures of the nighttime world. The heat is on and the streets are wild. We've had enough of your modern music and fake painted smiles. We're all looking for a little more. Big amps, small amps, it's all the same. Dee-lite said that groove is in the heart. But we believe that rock'n'roll is boiled in the blood and born in the soul. What more do you want? What more do you need? Distractions? Interstellar cellular progress? Better killing machines?

This 12" marks the first sonic transmissions from Black Mountain: the front line soldiers for the Black Mountain Army, an arts collective from Vancouver, British Columbia, featuring members of The Pink Mountaintops, Jerk With A Bomb, Sinoa Caves, and Blood Meridian. On the A-side is a remix of "Drugonaut", from the forthcoming Black Mountain full-length record on Jagjaguwar, done at the Pink Mountaintops' sound lab The White Room. On the B-side is an exclusive vinyl-only 9 minute opus entitled "Buffalo Swan."

SELLING POINTS:

1. An enticing precursor to their self-titled full-length record coming out early 2005, what will be one of Jagjaguwar's most important records ever released.
2. Black Mountain will be touring the United States and Canada with Radio Berlin in September and October.
3. Copies will be sent to select press and radio stations.
